Attractive mobility: SIXT and H Rewards launch partnership

Members of H Rewards profit from points and status benefits as well as partners' joint promotions.

Frankfurt am Main, 28 June 2023

The international mobility provider SIXT and Deutsche Hospitality's reservation platform and loyalty program, H Rewards, are revving up in tandem: As of now, SIXT has preferred partner status. This means that H Rewards members can tally up points both at the hotels as well as for rentals with SIXT. Status benefits at SIXT and joint point promotion campaigns round out the collaboration.

"I am very pleased that the partnership between H Rewards and SIXT is joining two giants in their respective industries. This collaboration is strategically important for us: it boosts the attractiveness of our bonus program and gives us additional traction as we reap the growth potential of H Rewards. What is more: there is concrete added value for our members, who benefit from our collaboration thanks to points and status rewards, in our hotels and on the road," says Oliver Bonke, Chief Executive Officer at Deutsche Hospitality.

Regine Sixt, Executive Vice President International Marketing at SIXT: "With this new partnership, SIXT and Deutsche Hospitality are expanding their already successful cooperation even further. I am very pleased that we can offer all H Rewards members an attractive partner promotion worldwide just in time for the best travel season. This way, they will not only benefit from our first-class SIXT premium fleet, which also includes more and more electric vehicles for sustainable travel, as well as our excellent service, but also from attractive discounts and point promotion campaigns."

For every car rental with SIXT – worldwide – H Rewards members receive 1,000 points, regardless of the reservation channel they opt for. Depending on their status with H Rewards, they also benefit from discounts as well as other advantages at SIXT, as SIXT matches their status by conferring them the same status in its own loyalty program. For example: H Rewards' Prestige and Gold members receive the equivalent at SIXT – a SIXT Gold Card – after a brief registration, thus entitling them to a discount of up to ten percent at SIXT Rent a Car as well as preferential treatment if the call is made up to 48 hours before making their reservation.

H Rewards members are also offered numerous point promotion deals - and this right off the bat with the start-up of the partnership: members are to receive double points for reservations and renting a car at SIXT until August 31, 2023, and triple points when they rent electric and hybrid vehicles. In addition, all H Rewards members who rent a car at SIXT that is eligible for points during the promotion period will be included in a prize draw. For the winner: two nights at Steigenberger Icon Parkhotel Düsseldorf, located directly on the famed Königsallee, with a rental
